

Do Kaporos With Money Not Chickens

- Chickens are denied food and water for days and are left exposed to the elements.
- Chickens have their toes and feet ripped off and sustain other serious injuries due to neglectful handling of transport crates.
- Holding birds by their wings causes broken bones and extreme pain. Leading veterinarians have said it constitutes torture.
- Improper slaughter results in a prolonged and painful death.
- Despite claims that they are given to charity most of the chickens are thrown in the trash (sometimes while still alive).
